Trains

The nearest railway station is Wynyard (approximately a 2 minute walk from the Tribunal). An underground pedestrian walkway runs through Wynyard connecting Kent Street to Pitt Street.

Buses

A major bus exchange is located in York Street above Wynyard Station. This services bus routes for Sydney City and the outer suburbs. Buses can be reached via the Wynyard area pedestrian tunnels or via street level. Ring Bus Timetable information on 131500 to find out more about bus services. Information and timetables are also available on the website at www.sydneybuses.nsw.gov.au .

Car Parking

There are a number of car parking facilities in the area. These are Council or privately owned and charges vary. Information on parking stations can be found at <http://www.cityofsydney.nsw.gov.au/link28>

Lifts

Please take the low rise lifts to Level 11 Reception.

Access for Persons with Disabilities

There is street level access for disabled visitors via the main entrance on Clarence Street. The low rise lifts can then be taken to Reception on Level 11.

Two parking spaces are available for the use of disabled visitors. Please telephone Reception on 9276 5000 before your visit to arrange use of one of these parking spaces. The car park is entered via Kent Street. A lift can then be taken to Reception on Level 11.
